Justice Transitions, Inc takes care of Outreach requests from Florida Action Committee (FAC) members, elderly registrants, and persons returning from incarceration.

Justice Transitions, Inc has a support house for elderly citizens who are forced to register, and need residential assistance due to their health or mental state. With your support, Justice Transitions can open other homes to accommodate more registered elders that need special care.

Justice Transitions, Inc continues to help FAC members and families that need re-entry services, and they offer a unique interest-free loan program with flexible terms for participants that are short on funds for rent, polygraphs, counseling, or other costs. When a participant pays back their loan, they are helping the next person.
